Come and join us for a guided adventure, through the romantic mountain of Sintra. Here you can visit the places that inspired several poets such as Lord Byron, the magnificent and impressive Pena Palace with its exotic and unique forest and the most western point of Europe. Combined with this you also have the opportunity to try the famous Port Wine after having tasted a fantastic traditional lunch. Between all this, you will drive through several places which access is only possible with a jeep, so get ready for the soft "massage".
